

A Wedding Feast

"It felt as if the whole world stood still when we opened the dance floor. During the evening I had to stop several times in amazement – I couldn't believe that an evening could be so unbelievably perfect. It was filled with love and close friends – a true wedding celebration!"

“We always knew that we wanted to get married on our family farm, Koktyls.

My mother had designed the house and my cousin and his building team had built it. Alex and I also got engaged there. I was overjoyed when I realised we could invite everyone to our farm to celebrate with us. We wanted a warm, homely atmosphere with lots of candles and flowers – not at all minimalistic – to combine the rustic farm setting with a glamorous celebration. It was a real wedding feast.”
